

Specification Properties of 1073B Transition Protocol Material (English Units)

Transition Protocol typical values represent data from 200 rolls across different line and polymer combinations from a limited number of manufacturing campaigns. Values will be refreshed, as necessary, upon data collection from additional campaigns and long-term variability discernment.

*Based on customer feedback, upper limit was not specified.